

CARDHOLDER TRAVEL FORM-

With increased scrutiny and security with card transactions, more members are being inconvenienced while traveling. Allowing a more fluid and automated way to notify the credit union their travel dates will avoid these mishaps, while allowing them to see value in our fraud monitoring process.

Cardholder Travel Form

If you're traveling, be sure to fill out this Cardholder Travel Form to ensure your trip goes off with uninterrupted service and to provide protection from fraud.

For a list of travel tips, that include blocked countries and other information, be sure to visit our Tips for Traveling page with up to the minute travel information.

For high risk transactions, if the cardholder cannot be reached, the Alternate Contact may be contacted and asked to assist us in locating the cardholder. No information about the transaction or the case may be divulged to this person, nor may this person speak on behalf of the cardholder. This is only provided as an additional resource for facilitating contact with the cardholder. (This per EFunds-PIN transactions)
