

Getting Started with CU*BASE Collaboration Communities

People who use CU*BASE® technologies have joined together in collaboration communities all around the U.S. Collaboration communities offer members the chance to become companions with other CU*BASE users, get questions answered and have a lot of fun while doing it. Collaboration communities are for everyone. From the first-time user to experts. From credit union CEOs to aspiring executives. All aspects of credit union operations are welcome and appreciated. Do you want your technology to do more for you?

Everyone is Welcome!

Meetings are held annually or semiannually based on the collaboration community in your area. Members connect for the purpose of sharing strategies and best practices around CU*BASE and the branded services that support their business.

- Build stronger bonds by helping each other succeed
- Impact the vendor relationship with strategic insights
- Influence feature enhancements with ongoing product feedback to validate ideas
- Share strategies and best practices. Find out what techniques credit unions are using to solve their toughest problems
- Learn about CU*BASE Technologies and Services as soon as they become available

Traditionally collaboration communities are informal gatherings of credit union professionals in key demographic areas such as a state or a common purpose. CU*Answers give each collaboration community autonomy for how each group is structured, promoted, and carries out its agenda. We are here to assist as your sponsor.

A Continued Focus on Collaboration

Collaboration communities are a safe space where connections are made. Creating a judgment free zone, CU*Answers Management Services helps you to create an agenda for your meeting that is uniquely yours. Expert speakers for your event can provide the insights you need to bring your vision to life.

- Cybersecurity and Business Continuity
- Protect Your Credit Union and Members Against Fraud
- The Impact of Regulation
- Strategic Planning

CU*Answers' Role As Your Sponsor

CU*Answers associates are real users of CU*BASE core and business technologies supporting business at your credit union. As the sponsor of your collaboration community, we work alongside you to deliver a great outcome.

As your cooperative resource we ensure that you are equipped with the information and business resources establishing the right environment best suited to achieve your objectives. CU*Answers has you covered by sponsoring up to $2,000 for the cost of your meeting space and expenses or providing the technology you require to meet online.

Getting started is easy! Contact CU*Answers today!

CU*ANSWERS
A CREDIT UNION SERVICE ORGANIZATION

6000 28th Street SE
Grand Rapids, MI 49546
616-285-5711
sales@cuanswers.com